++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine to start, cloudy later.

Today:
A bright start today with some outbreaks of sunshine possible. Cloud will bubble up through the course of the morning with isolated light showers breaking out possibly anywhere. Still warm with light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining mostly cloudy through the evening and overnight with a chance of isolated outbreaks of light rain or showers across the south. Mild. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Monday:
Another warm day with light winds and cloudy conditions for most. Some brighter spells possible across East Anglian coasts, with a chance of isolated showers to the west. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A showery but warm day most likely on Tuesday. High pressure then likely building, with foggy nights and mornings, and the odd shower during the days on Wednesday and Thursday.
